TASER Foundation Honors Honolulu Police Officer Isaac Veal During Major Cities Chiefs Conference

25-year HPD veteran to receive memorial grant

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz., February 14, 2005 – TASER Foundation, a non-profit foundation to honor fallen law enforcement officers and provide one time financial grants to their families announced today that will present a gift to the family of Officer Isaac Veal. TASER International CEO, Rick Smith will present the memorial gift to Mrs. Donna Veal during the Major Cities Chiefs Conference. The ceremony will take place at the Sheraton Waikiki 2255 Kalakaua Blvd. Monday, February 14th, 9:00 a.m. in the Molokai Room.

Officer Isaac Veal, a 25-year veteran of the Honolulu Police Department was killed in a single motor vehicle crash while responding to a call for service on August 16, 2004. He leaves behind a wife and family.

We are honored to recognize Officer Veal's long service and dedication to the residents of Honolulu," said Rick Smith, CEO of TASER International.

In 2004, 154 law enforcement officers in the United States and 7 law enforcement officers in Canada were killed in the line of duty. "TASER International works in partnership with American and Canadian law enforcement agencies to enhance the safety of our officers and the general public," said Mr. Smith. "We are pleased to expand this partnership to honor the sacrifice of these brave men and women. To date, we have provided over $290,000 in grants to the families of fallen officers. In addition, we have developed the TASER Foundation web page at www.TASERFoundation.org," concluded Mr. Smith.

About the TASER Foundation

The TASER Foundation distributes financial memorial grants to the families of fallen officers in the United States and Canada through donations and an initial endowment of $1,000,000. Over half of the initial endowment came in direct contribution from TASER International employees with the balance contributed by the company. One time grants are available only upon request by chiefs of police and sheriffs as well as federal law enforcement executives in the name of sworn officers killed in the line of duty since August 1, 2004. The TASER Foundation's mission is to honor the service and sacrifice of local and federal law enforcement officers in the United States and Canada lost in the line of duty by providing financial support to their families. TASER International bears all of the administrative costs of the TASER Foundation in order to ensure 100 percent of all donations are distributed to the families of fallen officers.
